Chapter 1 by Tailors <3

"I promise you this never meant to happen. I promise you he never meant to die. I promise you it was only supposed to be fun. I promise you th-" I couldn't help bursting into tears. The police officer stared at me with an unemotionally expression. He was dead. My brother was dead...

"Oh my God! Kalley! Don't worry! Nothing will happen! It's just a game!" He motioned for me to come to towards him. He stood in the middle of the forest behind our house. He held the match. "We shouldn't be starting a bonfire in the middle of the woods." He'd simply laughed. "It's not like the forest will set alight or anything!" Then he'd dropped the match. Fate is a bitch. "NO! JESSE!" But it was too late. I could not unsee the seen. He was on fire. Screaming. Dead within seconds. I cried unsure of what to to. Then his burning body had set the woods alight.

I sat in the hospital. My burns were not bad. Jesse's burns had killed him. Jesse had caused the whole forest to set alight. Then our house. Sadie died of smoke inhalation. Her newborn lungs couldn't take it. Ma and Pa had been roasted alive by my big brothers decision. They all died. All but me.

I'd been scarred. Scarred with the burn marks on my face. Scarred with this power. This power to set things alight. Help me...
